

Summary Plan Description of the Juniata College Health & Welfare Benefits Plan

Introduction

This summary plan description is dated August 1, 2015.

The purpose of this summary plan description is to explain the provisions of the Juniata College (the "Employer") Health & Welfare Benefits Plan (the "Plan"). The Employer maintains this Plan for the exclusive benefit of its full-time employees, retirees, and the spouses or domestic partners and dependents of these employees and retirees. Participants are urged to read this document carefully.

The following Component Benefits are described in this Summary Plan Description:

- Dental;
- Vision;
- Long Term Disability;
- Life; and
- Accidental Death & Dismemberment.

Generally, the terms and conditions under which an employee may be eligible for and receive the benefits are set forth in the terms of an insurance policy. These benefit programs are summarized in a "certificate of insurance" or "booklet" issued by the insurance company (this summary is referred in this document as the "Booklet"). A copy of this Booklet has been provided to each participating employee (referred to as a "Participant"). Additional copies are available upon request. All available options are listed on Schedule A, which attached to and incorporated into this Summary Plan Description.

The benefits under the Plan are provided through insurance policies. The Employer is not an insurer of any benefits. The payment of all benefits will be made by the applicable insurance company. This document does not replace the provisions of the insurance policies that the Employer has purchased to provide benefits under the Plan. Every effort has been made to make this Summary Plan Description as complete and accurate as possible. In the event of any difference between this Summary Plan Description and any insurance policy or Booklet, the terms of this Summary Plan Description will apply for purposes of determining eligibility and when coverage begins and ends, but the terms of the policy or Booklet will apply for all other provisions.

For any questions about the benefits under the Plan, please contact the Employer.

The Booklets for this plan are incorporated into this SPD by reference. These Booklets, along with any amendments or attachments, may contain the following information (as applicable):

- Additional procedures for enrolling in the Plan;
- A summary of benefits, though this may be provided as a separate document;
- A description of any premiums, deductibles, coinsurance or copayment amounts. The schedule of contributions, if any, to the premium payment will be provided by the Employer as a separate document;
- A description of any annual or lifetime caps or other limits on benefits;
- Whether and under what circumstances preventive services are covered;
- Whether and under what circumstances coverage is provided for medical tests, devices and procedures;
- Provisions governing the use of network providers (if any). If there is a network, the Booklet will contain a general description of the provider network and Participants will receive a list of providers in the network from the insurance companies. A list of network providers can also be found on the insurance company's website, which is listed on Schedule A;
- Whether and under what circumstances coverage is provided for any out-of-network services;
- Any conditions or limits on the selection of primary care physicians or providers of specific specialty medical care;
- Any conditions or limits applicable to obtaining emergency medical care;
- Any services requiring preauthorization or utilization review as a condition to obtaining a benefit service;
- Provisions relating to termination of coverage;
- A summary of the claim procedures. However, if the claims procedures are not included in the Booklet, a copy will be provided without charge from the insurance company;
- Provisions describing the coordination of benefits under this Plan with the benefits provided under another similar plan in which the Participant or his/her spouse are enrolled;
- Any subrogation or reimbursement rights of the insurance company that prevent duplicate payments for health care; and
- Any other benefit limitations and exclusions.

General Information about the Benefits

Type of Benefits Available

See Attachment A for specific information about the types of benefits available under the Plan.

Funding of Benefits

Insurance premiums for employees and their families are paid by the Employer out of its general assets. Employees may contribute toward the dental and vision premiums on a pre-tax basis.

If the domestic partner is not a Qualifying Relative under Internal Revenue Code Section 152 requirements, then the portion of the employee's payroll contribution attributable to the domestic partner's coverage will be paid on a post-tax basis and the value of the incremental premium for the domestic partner will be included in the employee's wages as imputed income.

Eligibility for and Termination of Coverage under the Plan

Eligibility for Coverage

All regular full-time employees of the Employer who average thirty (30) hours of service per week, including those with contracted employment break periods, or continued benefits under the terms of a severance agreement are eligible for coverage.

All full-time regular employees who were hired prior to January 1, 1997 are eligible to continue certain benefits (medical and a reduced retiree life insurance benefit) upon retirement at age fifty-five (55) with a minimum of ten (10) years of service with Juniata College. The spouse and dependent children who are enrolled on the Plan at the time of retirement are eligible.

Employees are eligible upon date of hire for all benefits except the long term disability benefit. For long term disability benefits, the employee must be employed by the Employer for one (1) year. Please read the Eligibility provisions of the Booklet for more information about eligibility for coverage. Dependents are eligible in accordance with the provisions in the Booklet.

Qualified Medical Child Support Orders

An eligible dependent child may include a child for whom a Participant is required to provide coverage pursuant to a qualified medical child support order (QMCSO). A QMCSO is a court or administrative judgment, decree or order that is typically issued as part of a divorce or as part of a state child support order proceeding and that requires health plan coverage for an "alternate recipient" (meaning either a child of a participant or state or political subdivision acting on behalf of a child). The alternate recipient must be treated like any other plan participant.

Upon receipt of a child support order, the plan administrator will promptly send a written notice of receipt of the order to the participant and all alternate recipient children named in the order and their legal representatives. If the plan administrator receives a National Medical Support Notice, it must notify the state agency whether coverage for the child is available under the plan and indicate the effective date of coverage (or any steps necessary to make the coverage effective, including copies of any forms that must be completed). The plan administrator must also send a description of the coverage.

After sending the notice of receipt, the plan administrator has the ultimate authority to determine whether or not the order meets the requirements of a QMCSO. Within 40 days after receiving the order, the plan administrator will notify the participant and the alternate recipients that either the order is a valid QMCSO or that the order is not a valid QMCSO. If an order is found to be invalid, the parties may "cure" the deficiencies with a subsequent order.

Benefits for Dependents

To be eligible to enroll as a Dependent, a person must be: a) the lawful spouse of a Participant as defined by the laws of state in which the Employer is based; or b) the same sex or opposite sex domestic partner of a Participant; or c) the Participant's or Participant's lawful spouse's or Participant's domestic partner's child(ren), including: newborn children, step-children, children legally placed for adoption, legally adopted children, handicapped individuals and children required to be covered under a Court Order.

Eligibility for Domestic Partners

An Employee's Domestic Partner is eligible for domestic partner benefits if the Employee and such Domestic Partner have met the following requirements: (1) are not married to anyone else; (2) are at least 18 years of age; (3) have resided together for the past 6 months and intend to continue to share a household indefinitely; (4) are not related by adoption or blood; (5) are not the domestic partner of someone else; and (6) are financially interdependent. The Employee and his or her Domestic Partner will be required to sign an initial Affidavit of Domestic Partnership in form acceptable to the Employer. Falsely completing such an Affidavit may affect eligibility for benefits under this plan.

Eligibility for Children of a Domestic Partner

Except as specifically described above, a child of a Domestic Partner will be eligible for benefits under the Plan on the same basis that dependent children are eligible. The Plan defines eligible dependent children as follows: (1) under 26 years of age, unless otherwise extended pursuant to applicable state or federal law; (2) including newborn children, step-children, children legally placed for adoption, legally adopted children, handicapped individuals and children required to be covered under a Court Order; and (3) unmarried children over age 26 who are not able to support themselves due to mental retardation, physical disability, mental illness or developmental disability that started before age 26.

Benefits for Domestic Partners

Except as specifically described elsewhere in this Summary Plan Description, an eligible domestic partner will be treated as a lawful spouse according to the terms and policies of this Plan. For purposes of Special Enrollment Rights, as defined in this document, the Participant may be able to enroll and enroll his/her domestic partner, provided that enrollment is requested within 30 days after the commencement of the domestic partnership or marriage. Upon termination, the domestic partner will be afforded the same continuation rights as a lawful spouse under COBRA.

Enrollment

Eligible employees must enroll for coverage by filling out, signing and returning an enrollment form and/or salary reduction agreement. New employees must enroll within 30 days of eligibility or they will not be permitted to enroll until an annual enrollment period that is held each year, except as otherwise provided in the "Election Change" section below.

When Coverage Begins (Effective Date)

Coverage will begin on the first day of the month following or coinciding with the first day that all eligibility requirements are met if the employee enrolls as required above.

When Coverage Ends (Termination Date)

Coverage terminates on the last day of the month following the last day of employment or the date that the employee is no longer eligible.

Eligible retirees may continue coverage until they are eligible for Medicare. Spouses and dependent children will terminate when he or she is eligible for Medicare or when they no longer meet the definition of a dependent, whichever occurs first.

In order to remain eligible for coverage under the Plan, a Participant must remain an eligible employee for the Employer under the terms set forth above and in the Booklets, or in the Employer's employment policies, as applicable. In certain circumstances, after coverage terminates a Participant and/or his/her spouse or domestic partner and dependents may be eligible for continued coverage and/or a conversion policy, as explained in the following sections.

Continued Coverage under the FMLA (if applicable) and USERRA

Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, if a Participant goes on a qualifying unpaid leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 ("FMLA") or the Uniformed Services Employment and Re-employment Rights Act of 1994 ("USERRA"), medical benefits will continue to the extent required by the provisions of these laws. Participants will be required to continue to pay their portion of the premium for continued coverage as required by the FMLA and USERRA.

Except as otherwise provided in the FMLA, participation may be terminated by the Plan Administrator when notified that the Participant does not intend to return to work after the FMLA leave or at the end of the leave if the Participant does not return to work. However, coverage may be continued to comply with the Employer's leave of absence policies or if required by the American's with Disabilities Act.

Coverage will be reinstated following a military leave as required by USERRA.

COBRA Continuation

If a Participant's dental or vision coverage (and/or the coverage of any dependent) terminates because of a life event known as a "qualifying event," then the Participant and eligible family members may have the right to purchase continued coverage for a temporary period of time. Qualifying events include termination of employment (other than for gross misconduct), reduction in hours, divorce, death, a child ceasing to meet the definition of dependent, or the Participant's or spouse's eligibility for Medicare (Part A, Part B or both).

The Plan will offer COBRA continuation coverage to qualified beneficiaries only after the Plan Administrator has received timely notification that a qualifying event has occurred. When the qualifying event is the end of employment or reduction of hours of employment, death of the employee or enrollment of the Participant in Medicare, the Employer must notify the COBRA Administrator of the qualifying event within 30 days after the qualifying event or the loss of coverage. For other qualifying events, such as divorce or legal separation, or the dependent child's loss of eligibility for coverage as a dependent, the Participant or dependent must notify the Plan Administrator in writing within 60 days after the later of the qualifying event or the loss of coverage. Notice must be provided as required by the initial COBRA notice which has been delivered by the Employer or the Employer's COBRA Administrator. If these procedures are not followed or if the notice is not provided within the 60-day notice period, any spouse or dependent child who loses coverage will NOT BE OFFERED THE OPTION TO ELECT CONTINUATION COVERAGE.

Once the Plan Administrator receives timely notice that a qualifying event has occurred, COBRA continuation coverage will be offered to each of the qualified beneficiaries. For each qualified beneficiary who elects COBRA continuation coverage by the specified deadline, coverage will begin on the date of the qualifying event.

COBRA continuation coverage is a temporary continuation of coverage. When the qualifying event is the death of the Participant, enrollment of the Participant in Medicare (Part A, Part B, or both), divorce or legal separation, or a dependent child losing eligibility as a dependent child, COBRA continuation lasts for up to 36 months. When the qualifying event is the end of employment or reduction in the Participant's hours of employment, COBRA continuation coverage lasts for up to 18 months. There are three ways in which this 18-month period can be extended: (1) if the Participant or dependent covered under the Plan is determined by the Social Security Administration to be disabled at any time during the first 60 days of COBRA continuation coverage and the Plan Administrator is notified in a timely fashion, the Participant and covered dependents can receive up to an additional 11 months of coverage for a total of 29 months. The Participant must notify the Plan Administrator within 60 days after the date of the determination, but before the end of the 18-month continuation period. (2) if any covered dependent experiences another qualifying event while receiving COBRA continuation coverage (such as death of the Participant or divorce), the spouse and dependent children can get additional months of COBRA continuation coverage, up to a maximum of 36 months. (3) If a qualifying event that is termination of employment or reduction of hours occurs within 18 months after the Participant becomes entitled to Medicare, then the maximum coverage period for the spouse and dependent children will end three years from the date the Participant became entitled to Medicare (but the Participant's maximum coverage period will be 18 months).

For additional information about COBRA continuation rights and for any questions about COBRA, please read the initial COBRA notice, a copy of which has been provided to each Participant and his/her covered spouse. Participants can contact the Plan Administrator for another copy.

Election Changes

An Employee or Participant may change his/her election during a Plan Year only if one of the following events occurs and only to the extent that the election change is consistent with the event:

- (1) the Employee/Participant experiences a Change in Status; Change in Status means (1) a change in the Employee's legal marital status, including marriage, divorce, death of spouse, legal separation or annulment; (2) change in the number of dependents, including birth, adoption, placement for adoption, and death; (3) change in employment status, including any employment status change affecting benefit eligibility of the employee, spouse or Dependent, such as termination or commencement of employment, change in hours, strike or lockout, and a change in worksite (but only if the benefit eligibility is lost or gained as a result of the event); (4) a dependent satisfies or ceases to satisfy any dependent eligibility requirements due to attainment of age, gain or loss of student status, marriage or any similar circumstances; and (5) residence change of employee, spouse or dependent affecting an employee's, spouse's or dependent's eligibility for coverage.
- (2) An event occurs that triggers one of the HIPAA Special Enrollment Rights including the employee or his or her Spouse or Dependent previously declining coverage and a new dependent is acquired as a result of marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption; or because he or she had coverage and eligibility for such coverage is subsequently lost because it was exhausted (COBRA) or terminated due to loss of eligibility or loss of employer contributions;
- (3) The Employee, spouse or a Dependent becomes entitled to coverage under Medicare;
- (4) the Employee, spouse or a Dependent loses coverage under a Medicaid Plan under Title XIX of the Social Security Act;
- (5) the Employee, spouse or a Dependent loses coverage under State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP) under Title XXI of the Social Security Act;

- (6) the Employee, spouse, or a Dependent is determined to be eligible for group health plan premium assistance under Medicaid or SCHIP plan;
- (7) the Employee takes an FMLA leave of absence;
- (8) the Employee receives a judgment, decree or order resulting from a divorce, legal separation, annulment or change in legal custody (including a Qualified Medical Child Support Order) requiring the Employee to provide coverage for a dependent or requiring another person to provide such coverage;
- (9) There is a significant change in cost (whether an increase or decrease) in one of the Component Benefits. The Employer in its sole discretion and on a uniform and consistent basis will determine whether the cost increase or decrease is significant or insignificant. For an insignificant increase or decrease, the change in election will be made automatically on a prospective basis;
- (10) There is a significant curtailment of coverage or an addition or significant improvement in a Component Benefits. The Employer in its sole discretion and applied on a consistent basis will determine whether there has been a significant curtailment (with or without loss of coverage) or an addition or significant improvement in a Component Benefit that entitles a Participant to make a corresponding election change. In the case of curtailment that results in a loss of coverage under any Component Benefit, the Employer may permit the Participant to withdraw from the Plan;
- (11) There is a change made under another employer plan and the other plan allows an election change or the other employer plan has a different period of coverage.

An Employee/Participant may make a new election within 30 or 60 days of the occurrence of an event described in this section, as applicable (election changes for events listed under 4, 5, and 6 must be requested within 60 days and all others 30), but only if the election is made on account of and is consistent with the event and if the election is made within the specified time period.

Plan Notices

Special Enrollment Rights

If an Employee declines enrollment for him/herself or his/her dependents (including spouse) because of other health insurance coverage, the Employee may in the future be able to enroll and enroll his/her dependents in this plan, provided that enrollment is requested within 30 days after the other coverage ends. In addition, if a Participant has a new dependent as a result of marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption, the Participant may be able to enroll and enroll his/her dependents, provided that enrollment is requested within 30 days after the marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption.

Additional Information

Administration

The Employer is also the Plan Administrator. The Plan Administrator is charged with the administration of the Plan and has certain discretionary authority with respect to the administration of the Plan. The administrative duties of the Plan Administrator include, but are not limited to, interpreting the Plan, prescribing certain procedures, such as those for Qualified Medical Child Support Orders and COBRA notice requirements, preparing and distributing information explaining the Plan to Participants and Dependents, furnishing annual reports with respect to the administration of the Plan, keeping reports of claims and disbursements for claims under the Plan, modifying elections under the Plan, promulgating election and claim forms, and preparing and filing reports to applicable governmental agencies.

However, for benefits under the Plan that are fully insured, the insurer has the ultimate discretion and authority to determine all questions of eligibility for participation and eligibility for payment of benefits, to determine the amount and manner of the payment of benefits and to otherwise construe and interpret the terms of the policy.

Claims Procedures

Each insurance company will decide claims and make claim payments in accordance with its reasonable claims procedures, as required by federal and any applicable state laws. A complete description of the insurance company's claims procedures can be found in the Booklet or can be obtained from the company.

Amendment and Termination of the Plan

The Employer, as Plan Sponsor, has the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time. The insurance companies that provide benefits under the Plan may make changes to the Plan either as required by law, as requested by the Employer, or in their own discretion. However, no amendment or termination can retroactively diminish a participant's right to obtain Plan benefits.

No Contract of Employment

Nothing in this Plan shall be construed as a contract of employment between the Employer and any Employee or Participant, or as a guarantee of any Employee or Participant to be continued in the employment of the Employer, nor as a limitation on the right of the Employer to discharge any of its employees with or without cause.

Statement of ERISA Rights

As a participant in the Plan you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). ERISA provides that all Plan participants are entitled to:

Receive Information about the Plan and its Benefits

You are entitled to examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator's office, and at other specified locations, all documents governing the Plan, including any insurance contracts, and if there are 100 or more participants, a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed by the Plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Pension and Welfare Benefit Administration.

You are entitled to obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the Plan, including insurance contracts and collective bargaining agreements (if any), any updated summary plan description and, if there are 100 or more participants, a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series). The Plan Administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.

If there are more than 100 participants in the Plan, you are entitled to receive a summary of the Plan's annual financial report. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each Participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

Continue Group Health Plan Coverage

During any plan year in which the Employer is subject to COBRA, you are entitled to continue health care coverage for yourself, spouse or dependents if there is a loss of coverage under the Plan as a result of a qualifying event. You or your dependents may have to pay for such coverage. Review this summary plan description on the rules governing your COBRA continuation coverage rights.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit Plan. The people who operate the Plan, called "fiduciaries" of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently in the interest of you and other plan participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your Employer, your union (if any), or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Participant's Rights

If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request a copy of Plan documents from the Plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Plan Administrator. If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or federal court. In addition, if you disagree with the Plan's decision or lack thereof concerning the qualified status of a medical child support order, you may file suit in federal court. If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in federal court. The court shall decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

Assistance with Questions

If you have any questions about the Plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or if you need assistance in obtaining documents from the Plan Administrator, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in the telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Pension and Welfare Benefits Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
